

A CIVILIZED SALE FOR CIVILIZED MEN

What is wrong with your life that you'd spend the week after Christmas shopping? Let it go. Sleep in. There's a time and a place for everything.

When the madness is over and everything's back to normal, we'll lay out a full array — brand-name men's fashions marked down up to seventy percent off — and throw open the doors.

It'll all be there, waiting, and coffee will be on.
